

Marie Rumpza-Heimerl

December 28, 2003

Rumpza-Heimerl (VanBeusekom) Marie Rumpza-Heimerl of St. Anthony, age 82, passed away of ovarian cancer. Preceded in death by first husband of 50 years, Ambrose Rumpza; and brothers, Herman and Jack VanBeusekom. Survived by husband, Edwin Heimerl; daughters, Diane (Bart) Grassie, Sharon (Rick) Slettehaugh, Carole (Jim) Moore; grandchildren, Steve, Dave (Enid) and Dr. Karen (Jim Leavelle) Grassie, Aaron and Neil (Makiko) Slettehaugh, Adam and Lynnea Moore; great-grandchildren, Alex and Jason Grassie and Saya Marie Slettehaugh; step-children, Daryl (Ann) Heimerl, Barb (Gary) Campbell, Larry (Jane) Heimerl; 9 step-grandchildren and 14 step-great-grandchildren. Also survived by brothers, Bill (Harriet) VanBeusekom, Ralph (Ruth) VanBeusekom; sister, Helen (Ed) Grotz; sisters-in-law, Ursulita (Jim) Huth, Idella Rumpza; brother-in-law, Clyde (Pat) Rumpza; and numerous cousins, nieces, nephews and a host of good friends. Marie has been an active member of St. Charles since 1942. She was an active member and officer of the "VIP Club" and a volunteer for funeral brunches. Marie was an avid bridge player and coordinated the St. Anthony Community Bridge Club for many years. She has also been a volunteer at Unity Hospital. Mass of Christian Burial at St. Charles Borromeo, Stinson and St. Anthony Blvd., on Tuesday at 10:00 AM with reviewal one hour prior in church atrium. Visitation Monday 4-7 PM, with a prayer service at 7 PM at Washburn-McReavy Northeast Chapel, 29th & Johnson St. NE. Interment at Fort Snelling National Cemetery. Memorials preferred to Allina Hospice, American Cancer Society or

St. Charles Borromeo Church. Washburn-McReavy Northeast Chapel 612-781-6828