“ To the family of Marie Wilson Day,I was deeply saddened to discover Marie's passing. I last spoke with her on Monday May 24th.She was suppose to come to my home for a perm that morning.She called to say she wasnt well and had just come from the dr. Thought we would try again in a week or two to do her hair. After all these weeks passed I started to worry and wonder what was going on. I kept getting a feeling tugging at me that something wasnt right, thought she may have passed .So I Googled her today and made this discovery.She was one of my favorite people. She was a loyal client for many years.I thought of her like a second mother many times as mine is out of town.We enjoyed many conversations over the years and she got to know my 4 children as well. I also painted rooms for her a few times .She was a very kind,generous, and hard working person who obviously loved her family so much. I always enjoyed hearing of her traveling adventures. I admired her talents and for her strength with her medical battles and how she kept working so long. I will miss her very much!Tracie Klug Melbostad

“ Dear Rick, Cheri and Nori, I am so sorry that I was not able to be at the Celebration of Life memorial for your mom; I hear it was a beautiful service. The many friends and family members that gathered that day to pay respect to your mother, along with the beauty of the music and the sentiment of the eulogies tells a story of a beautiful woman with a kind and caring heart. She made a difference on this earth; she will be missed more than words can say. I am thankful for the memories we made together. Chris & Dan

“ Rick, Cheri and Norie Mike and I are so sorry we missed your Memorial service for your mother. We were in California for a wedding and visiting relatives. Marie was one of the first people I met when we moved to Minnesota. We both moved here in August 1974. She and I were friends 30 minutes after we met. Marie, Mike and I had many wonderful times together. Sharing happy times and sad times together. Mike will miss her calls for help with her computer and I will miss our long conversations about family and solving the worlds problems. We will miss her. Mike and Etta Jane Belrose

“ How do you begin to give tribute to someone that has meant the world to you? Marie was a lady of grace, character and determination. We met while working at Shalom but remained friends. She was so much like my mom and became part of some of our family trips. Her love for family was very strong. At times there were disappointments, but she would always look beyond them. Her children, grandchildren and friends were her most cherished gifts. She liked to surround herself with young people because she felt that kept her young. Today we will celebrate Marie's new life; we will miss her, but she will be in our hearts forever. I had trouble finding the right words and ran across this verse : God saw that you were getting tired, and a cure was not to be. So He put His arms around you and He whispered, "Come with me." With tearful eyes we watched you suffer and slowly fade away. Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands to rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us He only takes the best. Rick, Cheri, Norie and family my thoughts and prayers are with you! My wish is that you continue to grow as a family and enjoy the memories and lessons Marie has left with you. Love & prayers, Larry and Andy Sandberg

“ To my dearest family, some things I'd like to say...but first of all, to let you know, that I arrived okay.I'm writing this from heaven. Here I dwell with God above.Here, there's no more tears of sadness; here is just eternal love. Please do not be unhappy just because I'm out of sight. Remember that I'm with you every morning, noon and night. That day I had to leave you when my life on earth was through, God picked me up and hugged me and He said, "I welcome you." It's good to have you back again; you were missed while you were gone.As for your dearest family, they'll be here later on.I need you here badly; you're part of my plan.There's so much that we have to do, to help our mortal man. God gave me a list of things, that he wished for me to do.And foremost on the list, was to watch and care for you.And when you lie in bed at night, the day's chores put to flight.God and I are closest to you....in the middle of the night.When you think of my life on earth, and all those loving yearsbecause you are only human, they are bound to bring you tears.But do not be afraid to cry; it does relieve the pain.Remember there would be no flowers, unless there was some rain.I wish that I could tell you all that God has planned.But if I were to tell you, you wouldn't understand.But one thing is for certain, though my life on earth is o'er.I'm closer to you now, than I ever was before. There are many rocky roads ahead of you and many hills to climb;but together we can do it by taking one day at a time.It was always my philosophy and I'd like it for you too...that as you give unto the world, the world will give to you.If you can help somebody who's in sorrow and pain,then you can say to God at night....."My day was not in vain."And now I am contented....that my life has been worthwhile, knowing as I passed along the way, I made somebody smile. So if you meet somebody who is sad and feeling low, just lend a hand to pick him up, as on your way you go. When you're walking down the street, and you've got me on your mind; I'm walking in your footsteps only half a step behind. And when it's time for you to go.... from that body to be free, remember you're not going.....you're coming here to me. Ruth Ann Mahaffey (author) © Copyright 1998-2010 <http://www.ruthann1.com>

I know that it is so hard to lose a parent, keep the memories close to your hearts and they and God will get you thru this time. “ Our thoughts and prayers are with you in this time of sorrow. May your memories of the good times of the past bring you comfort. We learned of Marie's passing thru a mutual friend and high school classmate, Helen Lindquist. It's unfortunate that we were practically neighbors for these past many years, and were unaware of the fact. But after 50+ years since our days in Bessemer HS, it's hard to keep track of former classmates. Marie (Sommers) Guliani, Inver Grove Heights, MN 6/14/2010

“ Dearest Rick & families, Our heartfelt sympathy, love and prayers are all with you and yours at this difficult time. No greater tribute can be paid to a parent than to have the love, respect and admiration that you have and will always hold for your mom and it is so very genuine! She taught you so well and truly loved her family with her whole being....you were her world! Her family and friends are proof that her journey through life was truly a success! We know how proud she was of you, and you of her. Please know that we share in your heartache and will always be there for you. She was a "special lady", as well as a very "special mom." “ Dear Family of Marie Wilson Day, The Lord said "I am the light of the world".Jn.8:12. He tells us further that we are to be children of the light and who among you would not light a candle to dispell the darkness? Surley Marie lighted many a candle to help those in dark places in their lives! Her light was evident to all she met and the light of Christ that is in her will shine on forever in heaven and in the hearts of those who will always love her. My heart grieves with you even though I rejoice that she is in heaven. Ricky and Katie's
