

Marija Troyer

April 22, 2013

Troyer, Marija age 70, of Lakeville, passed away April 22. Survived by loving husband and soul mate of 50 years, John; daughters, Nicole McAloon (Greg) of Minneapolis and Andrea (Dan) of Los Angeles; grandsons, Leo and Hugo; and Agatha and Loretta. Marija grew up in Croatia, but after her romance with John during a year of study in the U.S., they married and settled in Minnesota. Known for her warm and affectionate nature, she was the ultimate caregiver, raising her two girls, teaching high school German for many years, and caring for her aging mother in her own home. In recent years, she relished trips to Los Angeles and Belfast to see her grandsons; indulged her passions for reading, theater, film, and Game of Thrones; and got to see Paris. Our love for her is profound. Laku Noc, Mama. Memorial Service 2:00 pm on Friday, May 3, at Washburn-McReavy Edina Chapel, 5000 W 50th St, Edina, 55436. Visitation one hour prior. In lieu of flowers, please send donations to Foundation for Women's Cancer, http://www. foundationforwomenscancer.org/

“ I just learned today of Marija's death. What a lovely, gracious, spirited and kind woman she was! She and I started teaching the same year at Hill-Murray, and I valued her wisdom and her friendship. Prayers for your entire family at this difficult time.

“ What a lovely lady she was! I had the privilege of teaching across the hall from her for a number of years, and she was always so gracious. Her smile was beautiful, and I will miss her.

*God bless,
Weezy (Hill-Murray)*

“ Dear John,

I saw Marija's obituary in the paper today and I am very sorry about your loss. I recall talking to you about our respective spouses and you did light up when sharing stories about your family.

With sympathy,
