

Marilyn E. Cramolini

August 29, 1925 - October 6, 2020

Cramolini, Marilyn Kelly Age 95, of Minneapolis, passed away peacefully in her sleep on October 6, 2020. Preceded in death by infant son Joel Hanks and son Scott Hanks (Nancy). Survived by daughter Susan Hanks Mowen (David) and son Steven Hanks (Janet); grandchildren Jeffrey, Mary, Wendy and Tabitha, along with five special nieces, great grandchildren, grand nieces and nephews and many friends. A long-time resident of the Linden Hills neighborhood, Marilyn was a Minneapolis public school teacher for 19 years who loved every day of teaching. Her life was characterized by a love of learning and a passion for service, which she shared with everyone around her. In retirement, she combined both learning and service as a docent at the Minneapolis Institute of Arts where she volunteered for over 25 years. Always a willing and capable volunteer, Marilyn co-founded her church's Loaves and Fishes program and coordinated it for over 23 years. She loved leading her "Alzheimer ladies" in music and Christian teaching and also served in prison ministry. Marilyn was devoted to biblical teachings, was generous and caring to others, and especially enjoyed sponsoring and mentoring immigrants, many of whom became life-long friends. Interment is at Lakewood Cemetery for the family with a memorial service to be planned at a later date. Memorials preferred to the World Renew-Clean Water Fund, 1700 28th St., S.E., Grand Rapids, MI 49508. Washburn-McReavy.com Edina Chapel 952-920-3996
