“ Pam, my sincere condolences on the loss of your mother. Marilyn and I would meet out at our garbage cans the night before it was to be collected trying to dispose of something either Ed or Allyn couldn't part with. They caught on eventually and would check the garbage before heading off to work the next morning! Your parents were great with our boys and parted with your swing set until we moved in 1985 and we moved it back to their yard. You and Linda were the boys first baby sitters and we have some great pictures of you both with them.
