“ I will miss cooking with Marion and how she could get ready for any event in or meal
At no time at all.I learned a lot and now love to cook. Those drop dumpling chicken Soup , bake good and more. I’m pretty sure she taught me how to play cribbage,always Fun with cards at Art and Marion’s. When Marion wanted to get my attention she would Address me as Gary Lee. I will forever miss this great lady and my prayers and love to the family.

Love ya all

“ It’s rare in life to find people you can have a genuine relationship with -especially over many years and living so far apart. But I feel I had that with Mrs. Buesing. She always treated me so very well. I loved our conversations - her stories were hilarious and plentiful. She was also a great listener. I respected her strength and looved her food. She gave me a part time job when I was young and working for her was awesome. I loved her sense of humor. She told me more than once that i needed to lighten up. I’m so happy to have had the chance to reconnect with her over these last few months. I’ll never forget her 💕💕

“ Anyone that ever met her, knew, Miss Marion was a spitfire of a woman, with a heart bigger than the universe. I had the honor of being her neighbor for a short bit. That lovely woman was almost always in the kitchen, baking and making food for her "kids" to make sure they would take a break and eat. She was always bringing baked goodies to me, if she wasn't inviting me over for a chat. I looked forward to her company each and every day. Her hugs were the best. Her laughter. Her smile. The way she'd make you feel like family even if you weren't blood. I will miss her. And I am so very sorry for your families loss. Rest in Heaven Miss Marion.
