“ Marion will be missed by many, some we will know and some we won't. She and Larry touched many lives and are together again. We all have another ANGEL watching over us. I am grateful to have had her in my life. Much love to the family

“ I will remember Marion as a kind woman with gentle words. As a kid growing up in the Waite Park neighborhood of Minneapolis, I was fortunate to have gone to school and church with Laura, Steve, and Mark. Along with their parents, Larry & Marion, I'm glad to have known them all.
