“ I remember Marissa from Stevenson Elementary. When the entire school bullied me, she was one of maybe 2 or 3 people that treated me like a human. We reunited again at Jackson Middle School and then Champlin Park High. Marissa never switched up and was always kind hearted, and accepted me and showed me and my twin unconditional love. Rest up, beautiful girl. Your legacy lives on through your beautiful daughters💔🙏

“ Oh my sweet Marissa. How I love being your sister and how I will miss us bickering. You were the free spirited, spitfire person and everyone was drawn to you. Your heart was huge and you loved your family and my God did we love you so much more. I'll forever be missing my Ross but will laugh now when people still call me Marissa and get our names confused. I miss you so much. Watch over all of us and know we are forever missing one ❤️
