“ Aunt Marge had the most angelic voice! It never aged. Combined with her heart, she was so so soothing and sweet to talk with on the phone, truly comforting. I really miss hearing her voice. On another note, she loved little dogs! She came to visit all of us Turner’s in Idaho in the mid 90s and I had this miniature teacup Maltese puppy she wanted to hold forever. I have a picture of her with little Scout. So so cute. She loved her own little dachshund, Schnapps, dearly—as much as a person could ever love a dog. Before Schnapps, she had another little dog named Pumpernickel! Aunt Marge was a very special person. It’s great to imagine her reunited with Schnapps and Pumpernickel now!

Sending so much love to Aunt Lorraine, Uncle Dave, Nadine, Pastor Paul, her other dearest friends and nieces and nephews!

Love,

*Janine

“ Aunt Marge was such a sweetheart! She will be dearly missed by her family. I remember when my MIL took Marge and the kids to Chuck E Cheese - I do not know why Lorraine decided to torture her big sister like that but I'm sure it was an experience that Marge didn't forget!
