

Marjorie Jane Harrison

July 29, 1913 - February 14, 2009

Age 95, of Roseville and formerly of St. Paul, born July 29, 1913; died February 14, 2009. Preceded in death by parents, Gilman and Irene (Bollard) Harrison; sisters, Eunice Harrison and Lois Harrison; and dear friend, Phyllis Christensen. Survived by niece Susan Mazzitello and her daughter Ann Mazzitello; nephew Anthony Mazzitello; and their families; and by the Christensen family. Marge, a loving and feisty Scot, was a career woman. She and her friend Phyllis and their dogs Monty and Mayday lived in St. Paul for many years. She was cared for in her final years at the Lexington Health and Rehabilitation Center in St. Paul and then Rose of Sharon Manor in Roseville. Grateful thanks to the staff members of both Lexington and Rose of Sharon (too numerous to name but nonetheless very much appreciated) and to Marge's doctors and nurses for their loving care of her over the years. Special thanks to Pat Lomnicki. Private services will be held.

Tribute Wall

S.

“Margie, I'll remember your twinkly eyes, your smile, and how much you loved dogs and chocolate. I imagine that you are so happy to be reunited with your family, friends and with your dear friend, Phyllis. You were loving and kind and you will not be forgotten.”

---

S.S. - March 01, 2009 at 12:00 AM

SB

“I took care of M.J., she was a very nice lady, and will be missed. She loved all dogs and always had a smile. Blessed be her memory.”

---

Sue Byrne - February 22, 2009 at 12:00 AM