

Marjorie Kralewski

November 13, 2013

Kralewski, Marjorie of Minnetonka, passed away peacefully on Nov. 13, 2013 after a short hospital stay. She was born 4/27/29 in Mpls., the daughter of Amy and Hugo Gustafson. She is survived by husband, John; daughters, Judy (Hart VanDenburg) Kralewski, Ann (Mark) Young and Sara (Mark Dobbins) Kralewski; 7 grandchildren; sister, Shirley Abrams; many other relatives and friends. Marge graduated from Roosevelt High School and received her nursing degree from the University of Minnesota. She worked at Swedish Hospital as a pediatric nurse and taught student nursing. It was there where she met her future husband John who worked part-time in the hospital pharmacy. Marge was very active in the social ministries of her Catholic church and devoted much of her free time working on improving housing for those in need and other social justice issues. She had a special personal mission to improve the lives of children and chaired several fund-raising events for Mexican orphanages as well as for agencies in Minnesota. Marge's first and foremost love was being a wife, mom and grandmother. She provided spiritual and personal guidance for her children that has served them well in their careers and family life, and she often noted their many social contributions with pride and joy. Mass of Christian Burial 10:30 AM Friday, Nov. 15, with visitation one hour prior to service all at the Church of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, 13505 Excelsior Blvd., Minnetonka. Private interment Fort Snelling National Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorials preferred to Contemplative Outreach, 3550 Capital Creek Rd., Snowmass,
