“ Growing up down the street from Marge, I have very fond memories of Marge. Whenever I was fundraising for school, she would always support the cause and offer up a cookie to us “famished” kids. As I persued a career in entertainment, the Meiers were ever supportive by enduring never ending rehearsals in my parents driveway, sometimes bringing lawn chairs on their walks and “resting” in the driveway and encouraging my act. As I became a parent, my daughter was given the same neighborly love that I got when I was my daughters age. The Meiers are truly amazing friends and Marge will be missed, but never forgotten.

“ Marge was the mother of one of my best friends. I live in San Diego but whenever I visited MN, I would stop by to see her and Clarence. They brightened my day, and I will remember her sitting in her chair when I came through the door and seeing her beautiful, easy smile and twinkling eyes. She truly was special, and I will miss her. “ Marge was my cousin, we grew up together in the country and have been good telephone friends over the years since neither traveled anymore. I will miss the calls very much and am happy she is at peace now. My sympathy to the family but remember all the good times. She will be missed.
