“ I was always very fond of Aunt Marge. She was gentle and soft spoken, gracious and lovely. In her Christmas cards to me, she always encouraged my writing. I am sure that she was greeted in heaven by her beloved Bob, her dear mom, and sweet little Puggie. Love and Prayers ~~~

“ The last time I visited my grandma was on Thursday November, 10th. We made a promise that day that i'll never forget. My Grandma{Marge} was and still is very special to me. She made it too all of my soccer games and band concerts when I was younger. On very special occasions both of my Grandpa{Bob} and Grandma {Marge}gave Nick, Derek, and I a little break from mom and dad for a week while they went to Jamacia. The one thing that I've always admired about my grandma {Marge} was that she didnt like judging people before she got to know them first. I Love you and will see you later.

“ My Aunt Marjie was easy to talk to, and very kind. She was soft spoken and accepting of others. Aunt Marjie always came to family functions well dressed, just lovely. As a child, I thought: "She must be a very nice mom". And from the remarks above, that obviously was the case. She will be joyfully welcomed in heaven by all her family and friends that have gone before her. Patti (Elander) Granros

“ I love you mom and know that you are now at peace. I will miss all of our conversations. YOU were my "rock" on this earth. I will continue to talk with you everyday knowing I have another Angel watching over me. Thank you for being my mom and I will definitely see you later. With all my love, Your daughter Dawn

“ Marge was one of the first few who kindly greeted me when I moved into WestRidge Senior Community. She showed a gentle spirit while coping with illness. I will miss her but I'm glad for her to begin eternal rest and comfort from all who loved her and won't forget her.
