

Marjorie Marie Olson

April 16, 1934 - September 17, 2022

Olson, Marjorie M. (Margie) (nee Heutmaker), Eden Prairie/Minnetonka, passed away on Sept. 17, 2022 at the age of 88. She had a wonderful life filled with music, family, friends, and an abundance of love that she freely gave and was given to her. A gifted singer she spent her life entertaining people at family gatherings, weddings, retirement homes, and whenever the spirit moved her to burst into song.

After retirement from Honeywell Margie managed the Meals on Wheels program for Eden Prairie and created "Musical Memories with Margie," sharing her singing talent throughout the Twin Cities area. She loved cooking and dressing up her table and home to feed all with love and great care. A gifted seamstress and crochet/crafter she created beautiful pieces of clothing and afghans, and in her forays into jewelry making produced lovely earrings, bracelets, and necklaces. All were given away as gifts of love.

Preceded in death by her daughter Anne Olson, parents Harry and Marie Heutmaker (nee Happ), brother Gary, sister Patricia (and Jim) Ryan. Survived by her children Wendy Holdman, Tom (Joy) Olson, and Paul Olson; grandchildren Joseph Holdman, Brittany, Jessica, Cierra (Hunt), Darby, and Jacob Olson; great-grandchildren Isla and Millie Hunt; sister Bonnie (Jerry) Holl; and many other relatives and friends.

Dearest Mom/Margie . . . in your beautiful voice, keep singing with the angels!
