

Marjorie (Pinkham) Swenson

February 24, 2005

Swenson Marjorie D. Swenson (Pinkham), of Hopkins, passed away on Feb. 20, 2005 surrounded by her loving family. She was born in Mpls on 11/7/21 to Ted & Esther Dahl. Marjorie attended Gustavus Adolphus College /Univ of Minn for her BS, and later received an MFA at the U of M. She worked for Augsburg Publishing House, U of M School of Architecture, and as a fine arts instructor at Breck School. A well-known artist, her works have appeared nationally and many of her paintings are part of private and permanent collections, including the National Museum of Women in the Arts, Washington, D.C. Liturgical painting was her primary passion, and many churches have purchased her work. In addition to being an artist, Marjorie was a gifted writer, receiving national awards for her narrative essays. She is survived by her beloved husband ("my precious love") and childhood sweetheart, Lowell; daughters, Kim (Robert) Soash and Dana (Joseph) Holzinger; son, Jeffrey (Kathy) Pinkham; grandchildren, Josh, Tom, Sam, Christopher, Laura, and Jessica; sister, Genevieve (James) Hansen; and treasured nieces and nephews. "I know that my Redeemer lives, and by His stripes I am healed." Funeral service Friday, Feb. 25th, 11 AM, at Normandale Lutheran Church, 6100 Normandale Rd., Edina. Visitation Thursday, Feb. 24th, 5-7 PM, both at the church. Memorials preferred to Normandale Lutheran Church. Washburn-McReavy Edina Chapel 952-920-3996