

Marjorie Ann Way

March 9, 2017

Way, Marjorie Ann Marjorie Way of Saint Louis Park passed away on March 9, 2017 She was born in Albert Lea, Minnesota, in 1933, to her beloved parents, Theodore and Clara (Grasdalen) Hellie. Her younger brother, Ted, managed the family farm in Albert Lea until his death last year. Marjorie and Ted were preceded in death by their older brother, Kenneth. Marjorie is survived by her husband of nearly 60 years, Osmon ("Ozzie") Gordon Way, as well as her three children: Osmon ("Chip") Way (Denver, CO); Kami Bandt (Shoreview, MN); and Cory Way (New York, NY). She adored her four grandchildren: Brooke Way (Denver, CO); Tyra Bandt (Ann Arbor, MI); Carly Bandt (Durham, NC); and Anders Bandt (Shoreview, MN). After graduating from Albert Lea High School and the University of Minnesota, she worked in Minneapolis, where she met Ozzie. Marjorie never lost her love of learning, and she enjoyed traveling, reading, watching movies, making new friends, and supporting causes and candidates that were dear to her. She treasured her affiliations with Mt. Olivet Lutheran Church, the American Association of University Women, the Minneapolis Institute of Art, the Guthrie Theatre, the Walker Art Center, her various book clubs, and the Park Shore Senior Community. Marjorie cared deeply for everyone she met, and made life-long friends wherever she went. She always shared her gentle heart selflessly with others, and now our hearts break at her passing. A service celebrating Marjorie's life will be held Thursday, March 16, at 11:00 am at Mt. Olivet Lutheran Church, 5025 Knox Avenue South, Minneapolis, Minnesota, with
