FRIENDS

I've been hunting treasure
since I was twelve.

I've found trinkets...
maybe a few marbles.

But our true treasure lies within our family.

and friends,
friends,
friends

“ I just came upon this. Sorry to hear of Mark's passing. My sincere condolences to his family and friends.
I met Mark in 1998 while walking my dog, Lady, in our neighborhood. Mark took a liking to Lady, and we spent some time hanging out now and then for a while. Here are a few pictures I hope you will enjoy.
Mark was a gentle soul. May he RIP.

“ To Mark’s family, I’m so sorry for your loss, we’ll be covering you with our prayers.

Some of my fondest memories of Mark were times bowling and playing pinball at Skylanes with Paul Eide. Mark was an awesome pinball player. During Jr. High we built bikes specifically to do wheelies, then we’d have wheelie contests on the street in front of my grandparents house for hours. We would ride those bikes all over the city, and would eventually end up at this little make shift BMX track down by the Mississippi River, where spent tons of time.

We also spent time skiing at Afton Alps and Hyland Hills, where we would build jumps next to the chairlift towers, and then wreck our bodies trying to see who could soar the farthest.

I have so many great memories of Mark, he will be missed but not forgotten.

“ Some of my most treasured memories of Mark are the weekends we spent up at the cabin in the woods. Mark loved it up there in the 10 wooded acres. We would go every weekend no matter the weather.

Lots of good memories with Mark, Brad, and myself getting away from the cities rat race for the weekend.

Mark, and I were very close. I used to “tag” along with him, and his childhood friends.

He will be missed every day.

We all love you Mark ❤️❤️❤️
