

Mark Angelo Eulo

October 5, 1957 - February 25, 2025

In loving memory of my husband, Mark Eulo. On Tuesday , Feb. 25,2025 Mark went home to be with Jesus. What a glorious day that must have been. For so long he said he was ready to meet Jesus to sing and listen to the Heavenly choir. I know he is dancing and rejoicing and will be forever. He was a generous , high spirited, loving man. One of his goals in life was to make sure that everyone knew who Jesus was and help bring them to the Lord. He used to comment on the fact that when he went to be with Jesus that he hoped to see those he helped on their journey. I know those souls are standing in a line greeting him. He was a playwright and did a lot of Christian theater with Dick Waters and The Remnant Players. Mark retired from Norfolk State University where he worked for 20 years. Mark fought a hard battle with Vexas and MDS until the very end. I wish we had more time to discover our retirement time together but he's at peace and that is most important.

Mark left behind his wife, Jill Eulo, and six children: Christina and Neil and grandson Gavin Gardner, Nathan Eulo, Antionette and Oren Mason and granddaughter, Eden-Claire, and Franni Eulo and Brian Hielgiest, Jennifer Baker and Stevie Baker. He has three sisters, Robyn Eulo, Annette Moore and Gina Riva. He has so many family and friends here in Minnesota, Virginia and Chicago. Many will miss his smile, his laughter and his love for others.

“Markie-Mark... that's what I called him, was one of the greatest persons I met at Norfolk State University. Always pleasant, Always helpful, Always smiling, always willing to teach and give what he knew about computers to us at NSU. I will miss him... especially being the heckler in his training classes. Lol! That's how I got my nickname "Bad-Bad" Myra from him. I pray comfort to the family and may God keep His loving arms around you now and forever. ❤️

“It is an honor to remember a remarkable man—Mark Eulow – a colleague and a friend. His presence at Norfolk State University in the Technology Department was more than just a professional one—it was one of joy, creativity, and dedication to helping others.

Mark played a significant role in the establishment and continued operation of the Communication and Collaboration Center in the new science and technology building at Norfolk State University. His mind was a wellspring of ideas, seeking ways to improve, to serve, to inspire. But beyond his accomplishments, what truly set Mark apart was the spirit he carried with him—a joyful dimension that uplifted others.

He was an extraordinary friend, always ready with a kind word or a bit of humor to brighten the day. To know Mark was to know genuine warmth, and a heart full of generosity.

His loss is felt deeply. We can carry forward his example in the way we approach life - with curiosity and kindness, just as he did. Mark will be missed but not forgotten.

I offer my deepest condolences to both Eulo and NSU families. Mark's passing is such a remarkable loss for all of us. I will always remember Mark with his broad smile, golden heart, and humorous personality. Couple years ago we attended a conference together with a group of NSU colleagues and his warmth and jokes made our collective experience very enjoyable and unforgettable. Rest in eternal peace and light dear friend.

“ I, like everyone here at Norfolk State University, miss Mark's outstanding professionalism, exemplary service, and dedication to his very demanding job. Mark's unique voice and infectious laugh almost always preceded him in the hallway. Mark was always available and ready to resolve our technological challenges even after the hours. I know that he is in a much better place now. I pray for his wife, children, and grandchildren that they may find peace one day.

May you rest in heavenly peace with Jesus Christ, my friend. You'll always be in my prayers.

I am deeply saddened to hear about the passing of Mark Angelo Eulo. Mark was more than just a colleague—he was a source of warmth, kindness, and unwavering support to everyone around him at NSU. His infectious smile, willingness to help at any moment, and lighthearted jokes made even the toughest days brighter.

His presence will be greatly missed, but his kindness and laughter will forever remain in our hearts. My thoughts are with his family and everyone who had the privilege of knowing Mark.

“ I am just learning about the transition of Mark Eulo. Not only was he my associate at NSU, he was my friend. We worked together on cultural projects in Hampton, where he dramatized historic figure Brigadier General Benjamin Butler. He loved history, he loved life, he loved his family and he embraced all as community. Praying for comfort for his family and I trust that they already know how much God blessed them with a wonderful spirit named Mark Eulo. - Dr. Colita Fairfax

“ I will always remember Mark as a bright light at St Andrews UMC in Virginia Beach. He became my “ husband” , Jonah in the play we did there when I was featured as Mrs. Jonah. We had so much fun with the cast putting that play together. I loved him teasing me about bringing him a tuna fish sandwich...that bit lasted for years! Jill, you and Mark were a beautiful couple and showed God’s love in everything you did...May he comfort you during this time
