“ Mark, your passing has brought so many people from you life together. So many from High School who will get the chance to see each other again. Your love for life has touched so many. My sincerest regards to your family!! You now are in the hands of God who no doubt will appreciate that smile, your warmth, and your caring for people. He has a real gem by having you at his side. No pain, no worries and, your love of life is something that you will now share with everyone for eternity.
