“ I have so many memories of growing up with Mark. Years of playing hide and seek and blind mans bluff. Plus going with Erv to his cleaning jobs where Mark and I would spread out the powdery stuff and sweep for hours because it was so fun. We enjoyed roller skating and swimming in our pool. Mark was my best bud through my younger years. I wish we had stayed more in touch, Mark. Love you Forever!

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I am praying for Colleen and the family. I'm sure Mark is enjoying Heaven from a construction point of view. He must be relaxing, and maybe surprised that there is no new construction It's all done! Enjoy my friend!
