“ To the Peterson Family,

*The word says; There is a time to be born and a time to die.
Ecclesiastes 3:2*

Death can be a deeply felt heartache and void. I didn't know Mark personally but from everything I've read from those who did know him, I wish I had.

Please accept our heartfelt sympathy. You will be in our prayers. May the Lord grant you the Shalom and comfort that only He can provide. Allow others to share in your grief in whatever way you feel comfortable with. I find it helps get through the grieving process which at times can be overwhelming.

God's blessings

Markie, I love you so very much! You were such a funny, happy and good baby. Last night I dreamt about you when you turned two years old. You were so excited to blow out your candles and eat your birthday cake. I will never forget that day. You have filled my heart with so much joy. Ever since you were little, whenever I thought about you or talked about you, a smile always came across my face. I thank you for that. You were always willing to give your attention to my baby's, Mikey and Helibell. Whenever there was a family gathering, they would always ask, "Will Markie be there?" They both love you. Love Auntie Katie, Mikey, and Helibell.
