“Mary, I just realized what happened 2 years ago. I kept looking for Mark in the FaceBook log but never found anything. I so wish I would have known of Mark's passing. Somehow we rarely sense our own mortality, 58 is too young to die. I pray for your life and situation and that your financial concerns are few. We never saw one another after our high school period. It's so odd to think of Mark as gone with my images of him back in the 1970's. We are now the old generation - but somehow it just doesn't feel like we are actually that old. Sorry- I'm rambling- in tears here at work. Would love to hear from you as your interest leads: lindskog.eric@mayo.edu

“Mary, Jason, Jeremy, Amy, and extended family members Ken and I extend our most heartfelt condolences to each and everyone of you on the loss of your hubby, father, grandfather, and brother.
We remember Mark as a quiet, reserved, but pleasant man.
May your memories give you much comfort in this trying time.
