“ Marla, just the thought of you makes me smile. Loving and kind, always a pleasure to keep your company. That's not why I smile, it was your all knowing smile you'd flash at the Vogt boys when they were up to no good. You always knew, of course everyone did but you'd have that twinkle in your eye letting us know I'm on to you but you're not in trouble but you weren't getting anything past her either. Marla thank you for being such a bright light that never failed to show us how to treat everyone with love and respect. I know you're looking down on me now just as you always have. Love, Joe Vogt.

“ Marla touched the hearts of myself and my family with her beautiful smile.

She will always be remembered and loved very much, I had the pleasure of getting to know Marla while she was at memory care with my Mom, I will miss her very much .

“ Thank you for the unconditional love and caring you showed me, my siblings, wife and children. At a young age, I understood you dealt with adversity with Christine’s passing and celebrated hope with Doug’s birth. You were a role model and source of inspiration in my own life’s journey. You are free again to be who you were and the caretaker of those you loved.
