

Marlene Ann Nelson

February 9, 1938 - August 16, 2020

Nelson, Marlene A. age 82 of Bloomington, passed away peacefully on August 16th, 2020 surrounded by her loving family who had the distinct honor of caring for her in her home. Marlene will be remembered for her sunny personality, cheerfulness and her charming smile. Marlene was a devoted wife to Bob for 63 years and together they raised 5 children. When time allowed, Marlene returned to school, completed her associates of science degree and enjoyed a 15 year career in the healthcare industry. In her free time Marlene enjoyed participating in activities at church, as well as sewing, knitting and quilting with her dear friends in their neighborhood. One of Marlene's greatest joys was being with family. She lived for the annual family vacation to Pelican Lake in Nisswa and would begin planning the June trip in January each year. Nothing brought her greater joy than time with Bob, her children and her grandchildren. Marlene was preceded in death by her parents, Evald and Ann Olson and her son Steve. She will be dearly missed by and is survived by her loving husband Bob; her children Linda (Heidi) Nelson, Laura (Seth) Kirk, Julie (Ted) Jewison and Scott (Kerri) Nelson; grandchildren, Anthony, Emily (fiancé Alex), Josh, Bethany, Nick, Jillian and great grandson Miles. Due to Covid, a private memorial service is planned at Mount Olivet Lutheran Church, Minneapolis, MN. Memorials preferred to Mount Olivet. Washburn-McReavy.com Dawn Valley Chapel 952-941-7686
