Her nursing experience carried over from her professional life to her personal life as Marlene had a lifetime full of caring for and nurturing others. She was a thoughtful and loving friend and an adventurous traveler. She was a warm and loving grandmother, and had a special bond with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Mom's real passion was her family taking many special trips together; she wanted her family to experience the world. We have many wonderful memories of time spent together on Anna Maria Island. Mom will be dearly missed for her kindness, generosity, optimism, determined strength and love.
