“ Minnesota (and South Dakota) have lost a truly righteous person. Marlys was a true exemplar of all things that are good about folks from the Upper Midwest. In my younger days, she was my pal Steve's mom, Mrs. Schlachter, and though we liked her, we didn't really know her well. It was only in the last 20 years, after reconnecting with Steve, that I got to know her: to share book recommendations, thoughts on current affairs, advice on family, and so much more. May she rest in peace.
