“Maynard, Marcia, Mitch and Mark, our deepest sympathies. Marlys was such a wonderful person. She was so loving, always ready for a hug. So supportive, giving me encouragement and pointing always to Christ. She was so humble and willing to help another. I will never forget how her and I (Marlys's doing) planned the wedding for Judy who was in a wheelchair, took her shopping for a dress, made her day special! We will miss her terribly. You are in our thoughts and prayers. Love, Mark and Vicki Pierce

“Here's a fun memory of Marlys. Not many of you may know, but Marlys (mom) used to actually snow ski. I remember my first memories of snow skiing at Trollhaugen in Dresser, WI, that mom came along and actually skied with us. She hung up the skis a few years after, but she was such an involved, and loving mom! It's one of my many great memories of mom.
