And a large amount of very much loved nieces, nephews, godchildren, aunts/uncles, cousins, and friends. She devoted a large portion of her life to medical interpreting. Martha, who mainly went by "Patty" loved spending her time making people smile. She was definitely the favorite aunt of the family and had the biggest heart ever. Always willing to help anyone and everyone. Patty was caring, charismatic, loving, and just a tad bit crazy; but that is what everyone loved about her. The life of the party always laughing, dancing, and singing. Visitation and Funeral Services will take place on Friday, December 31st. at Strobeck Johnson Chapel, 1400 Mainstreet, Hopkins, MN 55343.
