Martin Kimutai Cheruiyot
(November 8, 1995 - April 23, 2024)

With heavy hearts, we bid farewell to our beloved Martin Kimutai Cheruiyot, who departed this world on April 23, 2024. Martin's life was a symphony of passion, kindness, and adventure—a melody that touched the hearts of all who knew him.

Early Years and Passion for Adventure Born on November 8, 1995, Martin brought joy to his family and friends. His vibrant spirit led him to embrace life with zeal. Whether he was snowboarding down slopes, exploring nature trails, or honing his skills in Muay Thai and kickboxing, Martin's love for adventure knew no bounds. He reveled in golfing, swimming, and the camaraderie of online gaming, forging lasting friendships in the digital realms.

A Life of Service and Dedication Martin's professional journey was marked by unwavering dedication. As a case manager, firefighter, and EMT, he faced adversity with courage and compassion. His desire to make a difference in the world drove him to pursue his dream of becoming a paramedic— he was set to graduate in July.

Kindness and Connection Above all, Martin will be remembered for the kindness and warmth of his heart. He extended support and encouragement to everyone he encountered. His bond with animals, especially his faithful dog Mako, was a testament to his compassionate nature.

Legacy and Impact Martin leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and compassion. His absence creates a void in the hearts of those who loved him—his parents Linnus and Hellen, sisters Doris and Yvonne, brother Adrian, and Mako. Yet, his light continues to shine brightly within us. We find solace in the memories we shared and the lives he touched.

Farewell, Martin As we say goodbye, we celebrate Martin's vibrant spirit. His memory will forever guide us through the darkness, reminding us to cherish each precious moment. Rest in peace, dear Martin. Your light endures, and your impact lives on in our hearts.

“ I was fortunate to know Martin in college. He was one of the most down to earth and genuinely nice people I've ever met. Rest in peace.

“ I got to meet Martin during my time at UCCS when he needed someone to foster Mako for some time. He had already trained her so well, she never pulled, was so smart and apart and I could tell she was very well loved by him. I'm glad that he shared such a great companionship with Mako. Sadly I never got to know him very well but he had a smile that made other smile and was a wonderful friend person! Sending peace and love to you, his family, and sweet Mako. -Rahsha Hannah Kerven

“ Martin,

I never met you but I know the passion and love your mother had for you and your siblings; still does. Oh what an immense loss this is to lose you! You may have shifted to the next realm, but you live on in the hearts of your family and friends. May God continue to comfort all the souls that grieve your passing. May Our Father hold you close in His bosom till we see you again.

Oyeee Mom & Linnus. My heart is heavy for your sudden and unexpected loss. I pray you find solace in Jesus because only He can cover you with the kind of peace and comfort you need during this time and going ahead too.

Doris, Yvonne, and Adrian. Sending you hugs the size of Texas. I can't begin to even imagine the loss of a sibling but I want you all to know I am thinking of you all.

Rest easy Martin. Rest easy.
