

Martin "Marty" Walk

January 31, 2010

Walk, Martin Jon "Marty" Age 46 of Columbia Heights. As an avid and expert fisherman, Marty made frequent visits with friends to Pine Point Lodge on Crane Lake as well as any local lake that presented a fishing challenge. Detailed logs were kept of each fishing season. Marty was very proud when he appeared on multiple covers of MN Outdoor News. As a dedicated, accomplished bowler, Marty participated in numerous bowling leagues and tournaments. On a clear summer night, while stargazing, Marty would stand with most anyone, eager to point out constellations to them. He was well known for his highly perfected wild rice soup recipe and looked forward to any occasion to make and share it with friends and co-workers. Member of New Brighton Eagle's Club (he rode the goat). Marty's professional career comprised 30+ years in the ceramic arts supply business. For the last 20 years Marty was a dedicated employee at Continental Clay Co where he was warehouse manager. He oversaw the shipping of millions of pounds of clay to customers across the country. He was well-liked and will be missed by many ceramic artists. Marty was a caring person open to making friends wherever he went....bobber down. Preceded in death, mother, Patricia; brother, Chris. Survived by daughter, Jennie Fremling (Steven); father, Dean (Janie); brothers , Mitch (Kathy), Nick (Pam); sister, Tracey Walk (Harold); relatives and many friends. Memorial service Monday 1 PM with visitation beginning at 11 AM at: Washburn-McReavy Columbia Heights Chapel 763-789-4436 4101 Central Ave. N.E.
