

Marvel McPhee

April 3, 2011

McPhee, Marvel F. 93 years old, of Hopkins, Minnesota, formerly of Washington, D.C., passed away peacefully on March 17, 2011. Marvel was born on June 5, 1917, in Franklin, Minnesota, to Eva and Jay McPhee. For most of her working career she worked for the Central Intelligence Agency in Washington, D.C., as a requirements and information control assistant for the Fundamental Science Division, reviewing and routing large volumes of scientific and economic documents with various degrees of classifications. After her retirement in 1974, she worked for the American Council of Otolaryngology and volunteered for Meals on Wheels and the American Cancer Society. She was an active member of the Oblate Mission Society, St. Matthew's Cathedral Club in Washington, D.C. and the Reparation Society of Mary's Immaculate Heart. She was a world traveler who also enjoyed playing bridge, ballet, concerts and theater. A special thanks to the staff and volunteers at N.C. Little Hospice for their loving care. Marvel is survived by her sister, Marilyn Tierney (Bill) and six nieces and nephews; Tom Tierney, Mark Tierney, Molly Schomburg, Jim Tierney, Bill Tierney and Katy Anderson. She also is survived by 15 grandnieces and grandnephews and 7 great-grandnieces and nephews. A memorial Mass will be held Saturday, April 9th, at 10:00 a.m. in the chapel at St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church, 2914 W. 44th St., Mpls (chapel is located in the lower parking lot of the school).
