“ I met Marveleen and her spouse Wayne around 2007 while staying in the Twin Cities. This was my first exposure to “Tangletown’s” winding streets and charming houses. I admired Marveleen’s very green thumbs as her house’s landscape looked beautiful. Margot Avey (an old friend) and I used our Occupational Therapy knowledge on subsequent visits to assist her and Wayne as his condition deteriorated. After she moved to Richfield, MN, whenever I visited the Twin Cities, friends and I would get together with her as a group to catch up and socialize. She always stayed positive over the years no matter where she resided.
