“ My husband Chris and I have had the privilege of having Marvin as a Fantastic neighbor for the past 28 years. Marvin was a person of many talents. He was always there for anyone who needed a hand. Over the years he shared many loving stories of his family, which he was so proud of. We will miss our talks with him dearly. When the owls grace his front tree, we will be reminded he is around. Huge hugs for all the family and friends. Marvin will be missed dearly, but never forgotten. 🙏

“ Marv was the best brother-in-law a girl could have! Even though we didn't always get along when I stayed with you and my sister in the summers (mainly because I was a total brat as a teen) it filled my heart when you said that I had grown up to be just fine. You will forever be in my heart! I will have 'one' for you and make sure you are 'downwind' (wink). Love you!
