“ Dear Pat and family,
My deep sympathy on the passing of Marv. He had a special place in my father's heart.
Marv was that remarkable former Sanford student that had the ability to connect as an adult to someone who was present in his life during those "unsettling" years of junior high. As adults, my sister and I both recall walking into our parents house with our dad remarking "I heard from Marv Magnuson" with a lilt in his voice. From my perspective, it showed great mutual admiration between two generations, that I hope Marv benefitted as much from the conversations as my father.
Nancy Gossell, daughter of Junior Gossell (or Mr. Gossell by almost every Sanford student I know).
