“ My condolences to Marv's family. For a time, I shined shoes at his shop when it was in the Grand Central Supercenter (later Zayer). Jim Buecher (sp?) and Ed Thomas also cut hair in the shop. I remember being tasked with starting Marv's car in the winter so it would be warmed up when he was ready to leave to go home. At first, it was a Chrysler, then he bought a red Studebaker GT Hawk. Marv was an uncommonly nice man. -- Stephen Godfrey
