“ Grandpa was the most caring, loving, hardworking person I knew. He had a sense of humor that would keep everyone laughing and continued through the days leading up to his death. He was an amazing grandpa and I am so lucky to have spent 30 years with him. It is so hard to pick one single memory as we shared so many amazing memories together. With Thanksgiving only a few days away I'll share some of my favorite food/drinks he would bring. From his pickle wraps, to homemade baileys and orange jello he sure knew how to make each of us happy. We will definitely miss him at our family events, sharing our life accomplishments with him and his unconditional love. Always in our hearts and never forgotten! I will always love you grandpa!

My sweet sweet grandpa. My grandpa was the hardest working person I'd ever met. He was definitely a huge inspiration in my life. He had the biggest heart and loved his family dearly. My heart breaks knowing he won't get to see my son grow up, or be there when my younger cousins get married and have kids of their own. But I know he will always be with us. It's still very surreal that in just a few days we will be missing his gentle hugs, his wit, his sense of humor and his love at Thanksgiving. Grandpa would want us to continue celebrating Thanksgiving the way we would if he was there but the first Thanksgiving and Christmas is going to be hard. I love you and miss you deeply. You will always be remembered as one of the greatest guys that ever lived!
