“ I will never forget opening the door at our house in Little Rock in April 1993 and discovering Aunt Mary Ann and Uncle Clarence on the doorstep. They were traveling through and altered their plans to stay an extra day. The next afternoon was Josh's Eagle Scout ceremony. Mary Ann thought it appropriate that they stay an extra day to represent family who couldn't be there to celebrate with their great-nephew. Who can ever forget her gentle way of speaking?
