“ Mary Ann was a good friend. Could talk with her on the phone for a long time. Always called me after getting a letter, card or postcard from my husband and I. Unfortunately I didn't hear from her this past Christmas and wondered why but I had just had shoulder surgery so hoped I'd eventually get a chance to catch up with her. Surprised when I heard she was in the hospital. Since her sister Ann passed away shy of 100 thought Mary Ann had a ways to go yet. We will miss her.

“ I never met Mary Ann in person, but I had the pleasure of getting to know her over our extensive phone conversations. Her father was my grandfather's brother; both immigrated from Czechoslovakia - but they settled a long distance apart: in Minnesota and West Virginia. Mary Ann was wonderful to share family stories and exchange photos. Her family was dear to her. God rest her soul. My sincerest condolences to her family, especially to April and Rick Uram who cared so much for Mary Ann.

“ Mary Ann was a faithful member of the Rusin Association. She was proud of her Carpatho-Rusyn heritage and culture. One of the few who still remembered her Rusyn language. ”
