

Mary Ann Barrett

August 19, 1932 - March 9, 2022

Barrett, Mary Ann

Age 89, went to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on March 9, 2022. Preceded in death by husband Raymond of 52 years; son, Richard; and siblings, Helen, Charles, William and Kathryn. Survived by children, Rosanne Carlson (Richard), Russell (Diane), Raymond (Julie), Roberta Barrett-Bettcher (Andrew); 9 grandchildren; and 5 great grandchildren. Mary found her salvation in Jesus at a young age at the River Lake Gospel Tabernacle in Minneapolis. She had a beautiful voice and sang live over the radio on the "Back Home Hour" which was broadcast across the country. She also sang solo's and performed in church choirs. She brought up her children to love and serve the Lord, sing and play instruments. A rich life she lived with her bright and caring personality loving unconditionally all her family and everyone that she met and was loved by many. She spent 13 years working at Minnehaha Academy. Mary also volunteered at Riverside Hospital and did home care for several people. She was known for her most delicious pies and Sunday pot roast dinners for her family. She was a wonderful loving example of Jesus and will be missed. Funeral Service will be Friday March 25 at 10AM at Hope Church, 7910 15th St N, Oakdale, MN, with visitation 1 hour prior. Burial will be at Fort Snelling.

Memorials preferred to The Salvation Army, The Navigators or KTIS.
