“ I met Mary through my sister Lynne, when we were all together it was so much fun! She introduced me to my husband of 30 years. Lyndee’s was our hang out in those days! Years later when we returned from living in Colorado for 11 years, we all got together again. I was interviewing for a new job and had to take an online typing test....it had been years since I had a typing test and it had to be 60 words per minute! Thank goodness Mary could type faster than that and took the test for me! She passed with flying colors and I got the job!

*I am very sorry for your loss, sending love your way.

“ I remember how funny she was. She will be like “ Rosie, Americans are weird,don’t you think so”. During thanksgiving she was cracking me up the whole time.
