Psalm 139:1-5, 13-18

You have searched me, Lord, and you know me. You know when I sit and when I rise; you perceive my thoughts from afar. You discern my going out and my lying down; you are familiar with all my ways. Before a word is on my tongue you, Lord, know it completely. You hem me in behind and before, any you lay your hand upon me.

For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb.

I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well. My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place, when I was woven together in the depths of the earth. Your eyes saw my unformed body; all the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be. How precious to me are your thoughts, O God! How vast is the sum of them! Were I to count them, they would outnumber the grains of sand--when I awake, I am still with you.

“ So many memories of Mary from my childhood, spent lots of time at the house with Carrie being my best friend growing up, just happened to watch some old home movies the day she passed. She was busy in the kitchen preparing food for my wedding, she made a beautiful wedding cake for us also. Prayers to the family, may God give you comfort during this time ❤️

Mary used to live here at Knox Landing. I have known Mary for 17 years and have been a good friend with her. She was one of a kind to all that knew her and loved her. She will be missed by all very much. Love and prayers to the family JoAnn White
