“ I met Mary at the last Gale Christmas celebration where Tony was present.

After Tony left us I was ever so grateful to be able to chat and visit with Mary, revisiting memories of Tony with her. Mary and Scott helped me immensely through that hard transition.

We enjoyed going through memories of Tony with pictures and chats. I truly treasured being able to visit Mary and have some laughs together.

Mary shared stories of the kids when young and the treasured memories throughout. In addition, she enjoyed sharing the grands and great grands achievements with us.

Mary attended my college graduation party (at 50) and that meant the world to me.

Mary, along with Tony, left a beautiful positive print on my heart just as I know they did for many others.

It is hard for me to think that I'll be going back to visit my Minnesota family and Mary will not be there.

My heart felt full the last time I was able to talk to Mary last Christmas. Although she was in a higher level of care, Mary was in good spirits and we had a lovely conversation. I'm forever grateful for that last chat.

I will treasure all I learned from Mary and my memories with her. She will live on forever in our hearts.
