“ The last time I saw my dear auntie Mary’s beautiful face was Christmas Day when she arrived with gifts for my family that she wanted to deliver after the annual family Christmas gathering at her and Jim’s home was canceled last minute because of COVID. She was her ever radiant and bubbly self spreading Christmas love and joy. I still can’t grasp that was my last time to see her. She blessed me in so many ways with her kind and thoughtful heart. I remember going to lunch with her at the DQ corporate restaurant which she was sweet to invite me to when I was attending school across the street. She opened her home to host my family wedding shower thrown by my aunts. And of course, I will forever treasure all the years celebrating Christmas Day with the family under her gracious and generous spirit. Those celebrations were the highlight of the holiday season for all our family and always looked forward to. I treasure my memories of my aunt Mary Ellen and am forever grateful to have had her in my life. I will miss her so much as will all of us who loved her. Our family will never be the same which I guess is a tribute to who she was as a person. Love to Jim and Amy and Tim. Kellie
