

Mary Hambek

February 26, 2018

Mary (New) Hambek passed away February 26, 2018 at the age of 90. She was born in 1927 to George and Pearl New in Glenburn, ND, one of 10 children. The family eventually settled in Minot, ND. She married Charles Hambek Jr. in 1945 in Minot where they farmed; eventually they moved into Minot. In 1961 they moved to Edgeley, ND where they lived for many years. Mary owned and operated Mary's Fashions and Charlie's Menswear. She co-owned Edgeley Dry Cleaners and Charlie's Barn with her husband. They then moved to Jud, ND owning Jud Bar. In 1993 they retired to Garrison, ND where they loved to fish and garden. After the death of her husband she moved back to Minot, then to Lakewood, CO and Andover, MN to be close to her daughters. Due to health reasons she entered Camilla Rose Care Center in Coon Rapids, MN. She was Resident Council President and loved participating in activities. She was loved at the Center for her constant smile, sense of humor, and kindness to all. Mary loved to fish, oil paint, play cards, and bingo; she excelled at Trivia. She loved to travel and visit her family. Mary is survived by daughters, Charlene Kirkpatrick of Andover, MN, Julie (Steve) Nelson of Edgeley, ND, Gloria (Bruce) Uchida of Lakewood, CO, and Robin West of Fargo, ND; 7 grandchildren; 20 great-grandchildren; 4 great-great-grandchildren; sisters-in-law, Helen New, Corrine New, Vanette Hambek, Mary Agnes Soltis; and longtime friend Irene Gilmore. She is preceded in death by her husband, Charles; parents; 3 sisters; 6 brothers; and son-in-law, Pat. She will be buried next to her husband at Rosehill Cemetery in Minot, ND.
