Long, Mary Caroline (Fleming) 91, passed away peacefully at home in Mpls on Sept 30, 2022. Born March 23, 1931, in Mpls., to TJ and Florence Fleming, Mary graduated from St. Thomas the Apostle grade school, Southwest High School and the University of MN. She was the beloved wife of William Long and wonderful mother of 7 children. Mary taught middle school English, was a volunteer in her community, a Great Books and Girl Scouts leader, a kindergarten teacher, an avid reader and Mn sports fan. There was always a song, poem or Irish ballad at the ready for any occasion. Mary had many dogs and cats in her life and usually had one on her lap. Mary loved to travel to see family and the world, most recently recommending her trip to the Holy Land to everyone. Mary was all about love and family, and love and family was all about her. Mary is preceded in death by her husband William, and her brothers Jack and Dennis. She is survived and deeply missed by her children Geoffrey (Joyce Terhaar), Margaret (Theo Chalgren), Elizabeth (Rocky Elgie), Patricia (Steve Gjerde), Martha, Christine (Jay Brunkhorst), and Catherine

(Kevin Earley). Her treasured grandchildren are Connor, Casey, Zack (Grace), Jackson, Madeline (Pat), Emily (Keith), Jacob (Jackie), Ashley (Jack), Carly (Sean), Thomas (Jenny), Geoffrey (Emily), Paul (Erin), Megan, Brennan, Shane, Graham (Emma), and Liam. Additionally, there are 14 great-grandchildren. Also surviving Mary are her dear siblings Ann, Patrick, Jane and Jim, and sisters-in-law Pat and Eileen. Mass of Christian Burial Monday, Oct 17, 11 am, visitation at 10am at St. Thomas the Apostle Church, 2914 W.44th St., Mpls. Luncheon to follow. Washburn-McReavy.com Edina Chapel 952-920-3996
