“ Dearest Mary, You brought love, charm & beauty into our relationship. I considered you a sister that I never had. You were always there when I needed to talk with someone. Your knowledge & sense of humor were part of your charm. You were a beautiful wife & mother. You loved them dearly as they loved you. Thank you for letting me share their love. Especially at Christmas. "Mrs. Santa Claus" was always happy to greet you & enjoyed the hugs & kisses from the young ones. Our 71 years of friendship have been a blessing to me at this time of mourning. Thank you - thank you - thank you. To your children I want to say: Remember in all your work the love your mother had for you & remember her guidance. God Bless you all. Love & prayers Helen

“ Gram Gram.. I want you to know that I realize I didn't spend nearly enough time with you, but you were often in my thoughts. I will miss your "hello dear, how are you?" everytime anyone came into the house. I will miss you calling me "cher cher", but most of all I will miss your beautiful smile, open arms for a hug and your awesome sense of humor. You are truly the matriarch of our family and you will be missed soooo much. Your shoes will never be filled. We love you! Give Grampa a big hug from all of us! xoxoxoxo

“ With deepest sympathies to the Maranda family. My dad(Jim Duffina)thought of you all as family. I know he will be happy to see Mary again. While there is nothing easy in the grieving process take some comfort in knowing that she is in a better place & can now be reunited with Ed.
