

Doris Sloan

March 21, 1938 - September 20, 2023

Sloan, Mary Doris Age 85, of Minneapolis, passed away Sep 20 with her daughters by her side. Known as Doris, born in Pittsburgh, PA and longtime resident of Edina. She received a BS from Carnegie Mellon Univ. in 1960 and a masters from Univ. of Pittsburgh in 1963. Survived by daughters Jennifer (Eric) Schaefer and Tina (Jason) Hepp; grandchildren Ava and Vanessa Schaefer and Sophie, James and Jonathan Hepp. She was a teacher in Dist. 287 who taught students with hearing loss and was president of the teachers' union. She practiced centering prayer, walking the labyrinth and loved poetry. She volunteered with Edina Community Ed. teaching adult English-language learners. She was a deep believer in the democratic process and supported causes and candidates aligned with her views. She was a yogi, tennis player and brought pickleball to Edina parks. She loved spending time with her sisters, Ann and Louise, in PA and FL and watching sunsets over Ft. Meyers Beach, FL. She had a gift to understand the needs of others and was devoted to her family and friends. Her ashes are placed in the Jo Pond at Lakewood Cemetery and a leaf with her name hangs on the Tree of Life. Donations can be made to TRAIL, a non-profit that provides transportation to fun experiences for people with developmental disabilities at bit.ly/... as she was especially attuned to her nephew Paul who benefited from similar services. “ I knew Doris, many years ago, from the pews of First Universalist Church. She was a delightful woman and I enjoyed our many conversations. I found her to be kind and warm, loving and sensitive, smart and informed. I send love and light to her family and friends. Ginny McAninch
