“ Oh mama how I wish you were here! I loved you so much and never told you that, I also never told you how proud I was to be your daughter. I know now that all these things I should have said to you along time ago. I'm proud of how strong you were and how hard it must have been to raise 4 children on your own. I'm sorry I took it all for granted I assumed you'd always be here! Til we meet again I love you always!!

“ I remember Mary coming outdoors to watch the gardening work. I liked her smile and a hint of a sense of humor. I will miss her.
