“ So Mary is at peace. She has gone to her "long home" Ecc 12:5. Jim and family, you have our sympathy and we know that the real adjustment will be for you Jim. The house will be big and lonely after everyone goes home. We pray for the Lord's sustaining grace. Bruce and Geneva

“ Dear Jim and Family: Carol and I have many fond memories of time we've spent over the years with Mary and all of you. She had such a kind and gentle spirit and her love for the Lord was always evident. May the Lord give you special comfort and encouragement in these days of grief. We praise the Lord that she is absent from the body and present with the Lord! Gary and Carol Clark

“ Dear Jim, I was reading of the Lord's grief in Isaiah 53 yesterday and Fred was speaking of a grieving heart as he was preaching from 1 Samuel yesterday. And now today we have another, different grief before us as we think of you grieving your dear Mary. It is not a grief without a Hope! What a blessed Lord we have. We will be praying for the Lord's peace and comfort to be a very real thing for you these days continuing. You two have been a good example for us. With love in Christ, Fred and Sue Scott

“ Dear Jim and Family: Darlene and I send our heartfelt sympathy to you at the sadness of Mary's physical departure from you. But praise the Lord she is "with Christ." We always enjoyed meeting up and speaking with Mary although it has not been that often in the past number of years. The Lord give you grace and joy. God bless you richly. Warmly in Him, Charlie and Darlene Fizer

“ I have such good memories of my times with Mary when we were together at Story Book. Her quiet, happy, godly manner were such an encouragement to me as a young believer as we visited and as I listened to her comments in the women's meeting. Doug and I will be praying for you and the family in the days ahead.

“ Dear Jim and Family, I am sorry to hear about the recent passing of Mary from her earthly home. But rejoice with you in knowing that she is now in her heavenly home with the Lord Jesus Christ. I thank God for the memories of her along with the many times that you had me into your home. May the Lord be close to you during this time. Your Friend, David Miller
