

MaryAnn Evelyn Kujawa

November 29, 1926 - March 9, 2025

Born November 29, 1926 to Charles and Emma Larson in Grantsburg, WI, died March 9, 2025 in Anoka, MN.

MaryAnn and her 5 siblings were raised on a farm outside of Grantsburg and attended a 1-room schoolhouse nearby. She moved to Minneapolis when she was 18, working for Bell Telephone/AT &T until retiring in the late 1980's.

She and her husband, Harold, were introduced by mutual friends and were married in May of 1952. Together they raised a son, Dean, and daughter, Kay. Throughout her life, she loved dogs (especially "Dinge"), tending to her rosebushes, and finding great deals at thrift shops which she generously shared with family and friends.

She was preceded in death by husband Harold, her parents, in-laws Adam and Anna, and 5 of her 6 siblings - Lyle, Henry, Louise, and Caroline Larson, and Charlotte Fadness, as well as numerous family members and friends.

She is survived by son Dean (Lisa), granddaughter Susan (Matt) Block, great grandchildren Rachel and Ben, and grandson Mike; daughter Kay (Larry) Bertz and granddaughter Allison (Louis) Hawkins, great grandsons L.J. and Teddy, and granddaughter Caroline (Nic) Bertz; and sister Pauline Bistram as well as nephews and nieces.

The family would like to thank the staff at Walker Methodist/Vivie and HealthPartners Hospice for their kind and patient care of MaryAnn, especially in her last few weeks.
